

LOCAL

Photos: See 9 new photos from Rockland readers

November 26, 2018

On November 8, 2018, The Salvation Army and EMPRESS were the guests of honor at Northern Manor's Veterans Day ceremony, honoring the residents and staff who served and fought for the freedom of our country. [In the photo, left to right, Ms. Joy Jugenheimer of the Greater New York Division of the Salvation Army in Spring Valley, Patty Martin, Recreation Director at Northern Manor, Nii Laryea, EMT from Empress Ambulance Services] Jeff Jacomowitz

On Thursday, November 8, 2018, Northern Manor on North Middletown Road in Nanuet held a heartfelt Veterans Day ceremony for their residents and staff who are veterans. Members from the Salvation Army, plus personnel and representatives from various Rockland rescue and ambulance attended the ceremony. Certificates of merits were handed out to each veteran and a cherry wood display case containing a US flag that flew over the Capitol Building in Washington DC and a certificate to Northern Manor's veterans were given as a group to the vets. Approximately more than 55 people attended the ceremony. Jeff Jacomowitz

On Thursday, November 8, 2018, Northern Manor on North Middletown Road in Nanuet held a heartfelt Veterans Day ceremony for their residents and staff who are veterans. Families came to see their veteran get honored. Each veteran was given a Certification of Merit and will have their photos hung up as part of the "Wall of Honor" located in the hallway at Northern Manor. Jeff Jacomowitz

<https://www.lohud.com/media/cinematic/gallery/73386664/photos-see-9-new-photos-from-rockland-readers/>